NNETS.

ine, cheaper er, than any urchased S RHEA. T P. CLARE.

NSELORS . STEPHENS. & Co.

peir care wil

Sanatter Sovereign.

NEWSPAPER DEVOTED TO POLITICS, LITERATURE, AGRICULTURE, MERCANTILE AFFAIRS

"The Squatter claims the same Sovereignty in the Territories that he possessed in the States,"

EDITORS & PROPRIETORS.

ATCHISON, KANSAS TERRITORY, TUESDAY, OCTOBER 9, 1855.

NO. 35.

The Squatter Sovereign, IS PUBLISHED EVERY TUESDAY

MORNING BY J. H. STRINGFELLOW & R. S. KELLEY. Publication Office, in Squatter Sovereign Building, No. 3. Atchison Street.

Trans : Two dollars per annum, invariably in advance. Single copies 5 cents, twelve copies for fifty cents.

ies for fifty cents.

To Ci.uns:—Five copies will be sent to one address for $9. Ten to one address for $17:—
Twenty to one address for $32. Forty to one address for $60. Invariably IN ADVANCE. Postmasters are requested to act as our

For one square, ten lines or less ......$1 00 ill be charged eight dollars. Communications of a personal nature, for at the rates of $2.00 per square, and pay Advertisements not marked on the copy or a specific number of insertions, will be conincid until ordered out, and payment exacted conditions.

accordingly.

(F) All advertisements must be paid for in advance, or at the expiration of three months. All letters addressed to the Editors must be POST PAID, to receive attention. The Law of Newspapers.

1. Subscribers who do not give express notice to the contrary are considered as wishing to continue their subscription.
2. If subscribers order the discontinuance of their periodicals, the publisher may continue to send them until all arrearages are paid.

and leaving them uncalled for, is prima facia evidence of intentiona fraud.

The Poet's Column.

The Prairie Bird which "De. Ella" loves so well, sings not more sweetly than herself.

> From the Lexington (Mo.) Express. THE PRAIRIE BIRD.

Sweet bird, thy soft and thrilling song Hath waked a spirit tone. That in my soul hath slumbered long. But answers now thine own.
O, in the soul sweet music dwells, Yet needs the magic sweep, To thrill its chords and weave bright spells.

All holy, pure and deep.

Thy song was sweet and breathed of home A name, alas! too dear.

For there it seemed the sky's blue dome Was brighter still than here;
And stars that smiled in sweetness down,
It seemed were brighter too.
And even that star I call my own,
Weeps not such holy dew.

And flowers, too, though bright and fair, And flowers, too,
Are not as those I knew,
Whose fragrance filled the mild, pure air,
In places where they grew.
I find sweet flowers in woodlands wild,
With pure and odorous breath,
But not like those that, when a child,

Wore in my careless wreath. The land is bright, sweet bird, I know—
Its softly floating clouds
Are tinged with hues of righest glow,

When morn with splendor shrouds. The glad young earth with orient's ray; Or ere, with rosy light, Glides softly in to close the day With ebon key of night.

Yes, 'tis bright with its lovely flowers, Its high and sun-clad hills; Sweet, with its birds in breezy bowers, By softly gliding rills; Pure with its air on southern wing, So gently hov'ring near.
Yes, yes, but still does memory fling
O'er me bright spells and dear.

I love thee, bird, with thy swee-toned song I love thee, bird, with thy swee-toned
That wakes such gentle chords, Whose silent music floats along
In spirit whispered words.
Then sing again thy warblings aweet,
Loved bird we list to hear
Such songs as make our souls repeat
Its echoes sweetly dear.
Columbus, Mo., 1855. D. E. D. ELLA.

The Separation.

With all my soul then let us part,— Since both are anxious to be free,— And I will send you home your heart, If you will send mine back to me.

We've had some happy hours together, But Joy must often change its wing; And Spring would be but gloomy weath If we had nothing else but Spring.

Farewell! and when some future lover, Shall claim the beart which I resign, And in exulting Joy discover,
All the charms that once were mine.

I think I should be aweetly blest,—
If in a fond imperfect sigh,
You'll say when to his bosom prest;—
He loves not half so well as I.

Miscellaneous.

Serving a Subpæna, or Love vs Law. It is singular what shifts love will make to accomplish its object. Bolts, gates and bars are of little avail against Cupid's picklock contrivances his cunning will devise ways and means to open them all. A young gentleman had courted a fair lady of this city, and it was supposed the two would become one. Some little quarrel of Money may be sent by mail, at the risk a trivial nature, as lover's quarrels generback, and the match was broken off. The play. The plot of La Somnambula affords bright idea struck him, however. He tured brows." One quarter of a column, three months... 10 00 she is injured by the one she loves, she is by the Ettrick Shepherd. " six months.....15 00 more apt than the male sex to "bite of her twelve months.20 00 more ap six months.....20 00 and be revenged on the offending object, her into so serious a scrape, was the daugh- frowned; the opposing counsel objected; Announcing Candidates for office, in New Orleans he found that distance, in-whole body."

married-in church?" "No, at her father's house."

"My dear fellow-I-I-ves-noo'clock ?"

"Yes." suit. By heaven, Julia shall be mine!

poens was made out and placed in the hands of a clerk to serve on the unsuspecting bridegroom the instant he was seen to eave his residence, and was dispatched in cab to watch the house. About 10 minutes before 11, as the soon-to-be-happy was about entering a coach before his residence, he was served with a subporna. "Can't help it," said the clerk in reply o his gesticulations about not knowing the parties, going to be married, &c., "we shan't reach the Hall now before eleven; he case is the first on the calendar, heavy fine, imprisonment for contempt, &c."

The bridegroom, who was rather of a timid nature, finally consented, particulary as the clerk promised to send a friend of his who sat in the cab, wrapped up in a large cloak, to the house of his bride in expectation, explaining the reason of his absence. The reader can easily imagine who this person was.

Eleven o'clock came, but still no bridegroom. The guests were staring at each other-the priest began to grow impatien and the bride that was to be, looked pale and agitated, when a carriage drove up, the bell rang, and "There he is!"-A gentleman entered whose appearance created almost as much astonishment as that of Edgar Ravenswood in the hall of Ashton Castle, at the marriage of Lucy Ashton, in "Scott's bride of Lammermoor."-The lady fainted-private explanations ensued between her parents and the lover the two real lovers were joined in the sacred bonds of matrimony, much to the

The bridegroom that was to have been, afterwards made his appearance puffing a heap of substance, and blowing. What he said and what he did on beholding his rival, and being made was really tragi-comical.

The story of the subpæna shortly after related the other day. leaked out, and created so much amusehe should do so.

Origin of La Somnambula.

the wrong to be on their side-presents travel unappropriated over the world, beyoung gentleman started for New Orleans a remarkable proof of this. The occur- beckoned to his clerk, Lamonte, who is within a week from the time her old lover in the west of England, through the medimaking a fool of himself. An hour passed. can fractionally advance those interests, Territory. had embarked for the South. On reaching um of a traveling clerk, with whom he Ever and anon the opposite counsel would stead of weakening his attachment only accounts. The day of reckoning came, and made the lady dearer, and he became mel- with it the bagman, and the settlement ancholy and low spirited. The first letter was so satisfactory to the baillie that he he received from New York from a friend insisted on the bagman's staying all night, Green enter. Curtenius, with well ex- French, Italian, Hungarian or Polish free State. Men of cool observation know to the account of the United States are music and luxury of his, announced that his old flame was to as the weather threatened. To accommobe shortly married to another. His course date the guest, the young daughter, a girl was quickly taken; the next morning found of eighteen, was sent to sleep in a small him on board a packet ship bound for chamber which was seldom occupied, and her room was given to the young clerk .-The passage unfortunately was long, Some time after the family had retired to and the poor fellow chafed and fretted so rest, he was sitting in a loose wrapper, court, this is the witness that has just been as long as the agitation of the negro quesmuch that the passengers began to think again inspecting his accounts and assuring him deranged, or else a fugitive from jus- himself of their correctness, when the bedtice. The instant the vessel touched the room door was epened and the girl walked "Never mind; Mr. Green do you reside decide that this country can do nothing towharf, he darted for the office of his friend, in; and, going up to the table at which he in that house?" "No, sir. I have just reto send them until all arrearages are paid.

3. If subscribers neglect or refuse to take their periodicals from the office to which they are discreted, they are beld responsible, till they have settled the bill and ordered them discon-After the usual salutations, he exclaimed:

hagman was only quelled by observing been removed, he gained his case, and it should, by some dread frenzy be percipitation of the United States, and of their joy in the onward and expansion of the understands are understands. "My dear fellow, you are just in time to that the fair intruder was fast asleep, and sive career of of our country and people, and with a sense of honor and of gentlemanly led in less than three months thereafter.—

that the fair intruder was fast asleep, and with a sense of honor and of gentlemanly offer the only element of power that would be faithful to America, in the event of the faithful to America, and a size of the faithful to America, and a size of the faithful to America, and the faithful at 11 o'clock. To tell the truth, I don't upon him, he instantly retired, made his believe there's much love about it, and that way into the parlor, where he slept on a the girl really thinks more of your head settee till the morning, leaving his chamthan she does of the fortunate bridegroom's ber in the occupation of his host's daughter. Fortunately the first person he saw in the "Good heavens! where is she to be morning was the baillie himself, and he explained the cause of his appearance by relating the facts; at the same time, from a sense of delicacy towards the young woves. I will have it. Have you any case man, he desired to be allowed to depart coming on in either of the courts at 11 without recalling to her mind by his pres-"Then fill up a subporna with the bride- suffer it; and not only insisted on his re- ed a better spot to expose to America the groom's name. Don't stop to ask any maining for breakfast, but that Jeanie the limits of the power of all the monarchies questions. It matters not whether he should make her appearance also. Jeanie, engaged and to assure us of the little we knows anything about the parties in the on waking in the morning, soon found have to fear from any or all of them com-His friend saw the object at once and her right as to the dilemma she was placed have it in their power to make war-demonst promised to carry out the matter. A sub- She was a fine, wholesome-minded young of their subjects, it is good for the world > took place within a fortnight of that day." "Ned, who is that girl I saw you walking with ?" "Miss Hogg." "Hogg, Hogg-well, she's to be pitied or having such a name."

"So I think," rejoined Ned. "I pitied her so much that I offered her mine, and she is going to take it presently." "Well, Alick, how's your brother lke getting along?" "Ob, first rate, he's got a good start in the world-married a widow who has seven children." The Clay monument at Lexing-

on, Ky., has been given up as a fruitless Well dressed female pickpockets

It is said that a new paper-Democratic-is to be started in Glasgow, How-are just now quite numerous in Boston.

Pleasure may be a shadow, but it uses acquainted with the condition of affairs, practice on the part of "gentlemen of the ling to see the gallant and long enduring its abandonment of Cuba, and generously ty; the visible proof of which is shown in bar," but none goes ahead of one we heard

When J. L. Curfenius, now a promiment, that the poor fellow declares he will nent member of the profession in Western > room together. Now for the next move: overruled, took his seat. The court in-

To the Editor of the New York Herald. George N. Saunders on Red Republicanism in Europe and Black Republicanism in America — Pierce and Reeder, Cuba, Kossuth, Rollin and the Cincinnati Convention, all at

New York, August 25, 1855. The battle of kings and aristocrats a now being fought at Sevastopol, in which civilization, commercial freedom and reence the awkward situation in which she publican liberty have but an adjourned inhad been placed. The baillie would not terest. There could not have been selectwhere she was, and a very few words set bined. And since Czars and Emperors woman; and although she felt acutely the that the "Hell of battle" should devour difficulty of her situation, she made no op. them-that the Russian hordes who threw position to her father's wish that she should themselves upon the citizen soldiers of come down to breakfast. The moment Hungary, and the fratricidal fiends who she entered she room she walked up to the murdered their own compatriots, women, young traveler, who was as much confused children and old men in the streets of Paras herself; she put her hand with ingeni- is and throughout all France, should be ous frankness into his, and said, "You engaged in one mighty massacre of each must come again soon and fetch me home, other. By the time the blood-hound milfor now I'll marry none bat you." The lion shall have been slaughted, the red reclerk looked first at the blushing girl and publican representatives throughout Euthen at the baillie, who, though taken by rope will have matured action. The tele-surprise, played his part in this little drama graphic lightning that breaks on Europe with true poetic justice, for the marriage the overthrow of Louis Napoleon, will start the revolution at Vienna, Berlin, Naples, Rome and Madrid. In view of the vibrations that already notify us of the rousing of that great leviathan on which of the now well organized Red Republiting our own interests. Of one great point and South, keep their places. we are happily certain; any change will

le. This country never had a more malig-present them. The noble but too poetic mercy of the madness and folly of federal government State of Virginia.

American school.

ther way America would be lost to Eu- leon. rope, greatly to the delight of all the ene-nies of republican liberty. It is only necessary to quote largely oughly Jeffersonian and State rights in lect a few paragraphs from Kossnth's approval. speech at Harrisburg, delivered soon afier his arrival in America: forious land is, and will ever be tervently attached to this, their free, great and happy home. I hope to God, that whatever ongue they speak, they are, and will ever American and nothing but American. And so they must be if they will be free have, through any misrepresentation, misf they desire their adopted home's greatness and continued existence. Should in regard to European interference with once the citizens of the United States cease | American internal affairs. reedom-in a word, America.'

This declaraction of principles, met as it was entitled to, a generous response from the national men of the country.

Now, not only should every red repubthrones are set—the people—it is well to settlement of the perplexing negro queslook to the opinions of the active managers tion-but so should every man of sense .- deeply interested in the history of the For it is by its continued agitation that great republic of America, must know that their magnanimity, their self-denial their can movement in Europe, in matters affect three-fourths of the fools in office, North the existence of slavery in the United Sta-fidelity to principle-except by the men wether a man has brains and integrity.—

ity cannot be created by foreign intervention. But the whole history of the United Some big blockhead gets on the Southern States, as a government and as a people, nant foe than the Dutch Frenchman, Louis delegation, and because he is true to the shows that they have practically one more Napoleon. And the English government, South on the negro question, he is fasten- than any other nation for the advancement every effort to win back the great spirits of civil only from prudence, never fails on the ed for years upon her representation ._ of the African race. And that in taking which his perfidy has robbed France. apprehension of revolutionary action in His entire stock in trade being, that the lead of every government in the aboli-Europe, to use its machinery to foment South will be ruined unless she sustains ed many years after by the British governsectional agitation in this country. "To her faithful representatives. And thus he ment. set the Yankees by the ears," so as to keep their thoughts and sympathies away from the European people, is a favorite stratagem of the British Cabinet.

And thus he ment.

"In the condition of the negroes in the hostility to the masses have marked its have five times the ability. And on the stratagem of the British Cabinet.

The fraudulent inaugural, and the same party, equally as sound, and have five times the ability. And on the stratagem of the British Cabinet.

sue the lawyer for $100,000 damages, in New York, first went to Lockport, he had "reds" of '48, has shown how little deserv- interference in the local affairs of a Terrisue the lawyer for $100,000 damages, in summoning him as a witness in a case of several summoning him as a witness in a case of which he knew nothing, and by which he came into court sense in which it was intended by their exhibited in Kansas. Governor Reeder. which he knew nothing, and by which he house and lot. When he came into court sense in which it was intended by their exhibited in Kansas. Governor Reeder. lost his wife. It would be a novel case if he found that his whole dependence was enemies; though they have since defiant- encouraged and sustained by all the powon the testimony of the tenant who occu- ly retained it, as we haughtily called our- er and patronage of the federal governpied the house-one Solomon Green .- selves "rebels" in our "red" struggle with ment, with the additional aid of the North-Green was called to the stand. The op- the lion of Great Britain. "Our flag is ern Emigration Societies, succeeded under It is curious to remark how a drama may posite counsel objected to him. The ob- red," say they, "with the blood of our patjection was argued and sustained, and riot martyrs! It is the handkerchief which wards the South in obtaining very modeand correspondence were mutually sent fore it ultimately assumes the form of a Curtenius was apparently floored. A has wiped the bloody sweat from their torant partizanship on the part of the federal The red republicans of Europe, al- authorities under Chase, as President, and and Southern masters have been the leadimmediately, to enter into commercial busiimmediately, to enter into commercial busiimmediately, to enter into commercial busithough opposed to slavery under their own though opposed to slavery under their own the proposed to jurisdiction, and not the advocates of it would have obtained much less. The lady. When woman is injured, or thinks a promiscuous after-dinner conversation, he and Green were seen to leave the court ing abolitionists of the black republican asked better assistance than the masked co-operation of Pierce and Reeder. Yet the degradation of the lash-A red republican in America, desirous the ostrich-like discretion, which marks the of American sympathy and national sup-diplomacy of the administration, betrayed the chivalrous Ingraham, a citizen of a port of European republicanism, must of the scheme. New England dictation and necessity be wholly national. Neither the federal intermeddling caused Pierce and mighty in their present and future bearing If we had had a Southern President pop up and object to his proceeding further. Curtenius argued the points which must move forward in the harmonious acmust court house door opens. Lamonte and balanced constitution. An Irish, German, doubtful if Kansas would not have been a tween the Northern and Southern people pressed indignation at being constantly American, in becoming an abolitionist renounces every species of aid from the fed- against all official or foreign intermedling. pean continent, and must feel that at this quires, "Have you any other witnesses to eral government towards the liberty of his The natural inclination of the proud Wes- moment, critical of the fate of millions on offer, Mr. Curtenius ?" "Yes sir." Sol- fatherland. For it is not possible that tern pioneer is to resist every attempt to millions of the finest races on earth, strugomon Green was called up. Up jumps the America can turn to the sympathetic and force him, even to the extent of going ex- gling for the sway of mind over force, of opposite counsel. "May it please the active consideration of European interests, actly opposite to his first intention. Aborejected. It is almost a contempt to bring tion wears an aspect so threatening to her it in which emancipation was contempla- the United States-should harmonize all him on the standagain." Mr. Curtenius: own internal quiet. A red republican, to ted in Virginia, the grandmother of Mis- differences, so that they may present to come only disorganized fragments, power- ty ambition to manage everything, he is less for good to ourselves or others. Ei- perpetually trying to imitate Louis Napo-I give here some extracts from a correspondence on the peculiar aspect of African representatives in a false position before bondage in our country, which took place any portion of the American people. from the republicans to show them thor- in London, June, 1854, and which was you to say whether or not I am justified in their views on American questions. I se- tropolis at that time, meeting their warm the republican representatives of Europe

Extract of my letter addressed "To Louis Kossuth and others, representatives of "I hope to God that the people of this Jeffersonian republicanism in Europe":- siderations of a political character are in-"LONDON, June 2, 1854.

> I ask, in justice to myself and the question, that you will correct me if, in recent statements of mine to friends at home, tated the views of the republican leaders freedom elevated to the proud position on thorized to say that it is your deliberate lican take this enlarged view of the work- Southern States, that they will do of them- ry other. ing of our system, and regard the Califor- selves what is right in regard to the slaves. nia, Kansas and Nebraska acts as a final of irritation from any external influences. "The republican statesmen of Europe, tes is an inheritance from the British Gov- of '76 - entertained toward this whole ernment, and that it involves at the pres-The test with the democracy is only to ent day questions of much greater magnido us no harm—most of the existing gov. ent day questions of much greater magni-do us no harm—most of the existing gov. be "sound," and with the black republi-tude than the simple cash value of the ministration, the highest regard. But Mr. Pierce and his cabinet treated their friendly shown by the Herald, to such articles as I against Kansas, to ensure, if not a re-elechave from time to time desired to bring betion, at least the support of a powerful which led them to sell each other into alaery American Minister in Europe, of a fore the American and European public, Northern party. So, also, this miserable very for a few trinckets, to a highly respec-We have read of many instances of sharp leads me to the belief that you will unwil- administration expects the South to forgive table grade of civilization and Christianiling to see the gallant and long enduring its abandonment of Cacardan the prosperty and good government is representatives of "red" republicanism in renew its lease for four years, because it representatives of "red" republicanism in administers the Fugitive Slave law. If anything were required to show the ted American slave, from the Southern > prosperous establishment of the American blacks, the most generous, the most disinterested act of benevolence ever shown by for all known ages, the first light which has beamed upod Ethiopia-a benevolence in which the Southern State governments country on earth where white men and wo men are realy free, and where even the citizenship, which resounded under every throne in Europe.

nise a national character, to which can safely be trusted all questions of its own pop up and object to his proceeding furupon the world. The whole great Union and a Southern Governor, and no antaginternal policy, with the certainty of a so-rewarded the clever ruse of the counsellor us exclusive home occupation for a centu- irritable disposition that now prevails over "Satisfied as I am that the republicans -the disqualification of his witness had ry to come. Or, if anything more sudden the South and South-west on this subject. of Europe, because of their appreciation he faithful to America, in the event of the United States becoming involved in a war with any European monarchy, I am anxious that no misrepresentations, designed or accidental, should place their chasen

> "With these views, I respectfully ask shown to all the leading "reds" in the me- assuring friends in the United States that do in no way desire to interfere with any domestic question in the United States, and especially with one wherein, besides the subject of slavery, so many other con-

> > EXTRACT FROM KUSSUTH'S REPLY.

GEO. N. SANDERS."

London, June 3 1854. "Upon carefully reading your letter. I reply, that while deploring the existence of slavery anywhere, all my principles are against foreign interference with the doto be Americans, and become again Anglo-Saxon, Irish, German, Spanish, Italian Danish, Swedish, French, America and earnest discussion of all the leadwould soon cease to be what it is now ing points of your policy, I have felt au- men, the United States do not yet appear conscious of their competent position; still earth. I hope that all the people of the judgement that such interference was in I consider the strength and prosperity of United States will never become anything opposition to the principle of State right, the only republican power on earth so imbut Americans; and even its youngest adopted sons, though fresh with sweet home statesman of Italy, Hungary, France Potata I certainly would never contribute recollections, will know here no South, no land and Germany. A paper declaring anything to its internal divisions. Nay, North, no East, no West—nothing but the this was, before being sent to America, true to my principles, I cannot recognize whole country, the common nationality of expressly shown to Mazzini; and was then any division in America; I look to the sent to the Louisville Democrat, (Ken- brotherhood of the great republic as a whole, tucky), and will be found in the March is and have too high a respect for the Amersue of that journal. It states, as the sen- ican people, as one undivided body of sintiment of the European republican leaders cere republicans, not to believe they will in London, that they have faith in the of themselves, with all the light before honor and generosity and justice of the them, make their nation a model for eve-

> The grand intellectual organization of red republicans of Europe, embracing a body of men unequalled for their virtue, manifestations with a contempt of which Persigny and Morny would not have been culpable. For Louis Napoleon has made

Indeed the whole drift of this admintration has been to alienate from us everything liberal and democratic, in Europe,